INFORMATION

Why choose to continue to study languages?

As well as being a fun and motivating experience, learning languages boosts brainpower. Learning a language can help provide:

- A better understanding of their mother tongue, which in turn has a positive effect on literacy.
- Intercultural understanding,
- Empathy, tolerance and appreciation of diversity.
- Better critical thinking skills
- Learning a language can delay the symptoms of dementia by up to five years, as well as aid recovery after a stroke.
- and is very good for business.

Why FRENCH?

French is the only language other than English spoken on five continents. French and English are the only two global languages. French, along with English, is the official working language of :

- The United Nations
- The International Olympic Committee
- The International Red Cross
- The Council of Europe
- The European Court of Justice

The reality of today's world of work

- ⇒ Only 6% of world population are native English speakers. 75% don't speak English at all
- ⇒ Language skills are needed at all levels in the workforce, and not simply by an internationally mobile elite.
- ⇒ Only around one third of businesses have no need at all for foreign language skills in their employees – and this is likely to decrease in future. (SCILT)
- ⇒ The French are leading manufacturers of TV sets, electronic equipment and also cars
- ⇒ The French are furthermore leaders in medical genetics, aerospace and research on high energy physics. This provides unlimited career opportunities on our door step.
