

Why GERMAN?

German is an official language in Austria, Luxembourg, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, eastern France, northern Italy and eastern Belgium. It is also an important second language in many Eastern European countries.

German is the number one language required by UK businesses according to research by the British Council.

Germany, Austria and Switzerland are also popular tourist destinations—for skiing, cruises on the River Rhine, city breaks.

GERMAN HIGHER

Entry Requirements

This is at the discretion of the school/college but you would normally be expected to have attained one of the following: German National 5 at grades A or B

Content of the course

In this course you will develop your reading, listening, talking and writing skills in German in the contexts of

- SOCIETY
- LEARNING
- EMPLOYABILITY
- CULTURE

You will learn to understand and use detailed and complex language, and will need a good understanding of grammar, particularly using different tenses.

Higher pupils are expected to regularly support their learning in class with revision and practice at home, and should be able to work independently.

ASSESSMENT

Course Assignment—Writing

You will produce a piece of discursive writing of 200-250 words, in German, using detailed and complex language, in response to a stimulus in English. This will be prepared, and carried out in class, and you will be given the opportunity to improve your work. The assignment is marked externally by the SQA. The assignment is worth 12.5% of the final grade.

Course Assessment — Performance, Talking

Candidates take part in a discussion with the teacher in German, covering at least 2 of the contexts above. You will be required to answer questions using detailed and complex language, giving opinions. The discussion lasts around 10 minutes. The talking performance exam is carried out in school and marked by the class teacher, subject to verification by the SQA. It is worth 25% of the final grade.

SQA Examinations
